SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. George Sakarellos, the KKE Representative with the Cominform and the Political Commissar of the Politburo of KKE, is thought to be in direct contact with Moscow on KKE matters. It is believed on good authority that he is a Member of the "Rumanian Communist Party" (Bolshevik) and an official of the Rumanian Workers Party (Communist). He is also a permanent KKE Representative with the Cominform in Bucharest, together with Eleftherios Apostolos and Apostolos Grozos, both members of the KKE Central Committee.
2. Sakarellos is reported to have made the following statements to a senior KKE official at the beginning of October:
  - a. The "Proletarian Movement" throughout the world, led by the Soviet Union, is "well-advanced".
  - b. Western capitalists are preparing a third World War under cover of the Marshall Plan. In view of this the International Proletarian Movement is obliged to take various countermeasures such as accelerated development of Five Year Plans, ensuring the failure of the Marshall Plan through mass uprisings, prevention of peaceful solutions to any internal problems, lowering of the standard of living of the Western working classes, and infiltration of proletarian agents into government systems of the Western countries.

In order to attain these objectives, the Cominform had in operation a Three Year Plan which might be extended to Five Years; this plan had been operating since the end of 1947 and envisaged the following steps:

- a. In the first year a thorough organization of those Communist Parties which controlled Governments; strict application of Marxist-Leninist doctrines under All-Union supervision; dissolution of all Socialist Parties in Eastern Europe; coordination of all countries of the Eastern European Bloc; and unification of all countries from Eastern Germany as far as the Pacific by the spread of a "Liberation Movement" in China.
- b. In the second year, encouragement of widespread strikes and sabotage in the West; thorough reorganization on Red Army lines of the Eastern armies; strict application of the Party line from the Cominform; reinforcement and development of revolutionary movements in Greece, Spain, China and Israel; continuance of a united diplomatic opposition to every move on the part of the West.

- c. In the third year, maintenance of united activity of all working classes with an unhindered succession of strikes calculated to bring about complete disruption of the Marshall Plan countries; a general attack by a revolutionary movement in Greece to result in the destruction of Monarcho-Fascists; development of a revolutionary movement in Italy and the Middle East with the object of rendering useless Anglo-American bases in the Mediterranean; complete proletarian control of Germany and Finland; and the development of uprisings in France and Austria.
4. The Greek Movement had an important part to play toward the success of the Cominform Plan. It is considered that in Greece the uprisings in the towns would be the basis of eventual success, and party leadership had been misled into fighting in the mountains and abandoning towns. This probably had belated rather than hastened eventual success. It was now the duty of party officials to study the problems of the towns with a view to strengthening the Party's position in them.
